WELCOME to the August issue of LINK

In my focus this year on unusual dates in the church calendar, I have so far reflected on either the quirky origins of familiar celebrations, or on days given over to niche purposes like regular fasting, which sit outside the major flow from Christ's Incarnation, through His Passion, to His return.

But there are some dates in the church year that are simultaneously not well known, yet focus on a very significant part of the gospel narrative, and the Transfiguration is one of them.

Celebrated on August 6th, it sits out of sequence with the wider gospel-shaped year, as it took place between Christ's birth and His crucifixion. (Read about it in Matthew 17.) Yet it is fittingly located in the season after Trinity Sunday, which has traditionally been a time for teaching core aspects of Christian belief, particularly about the being and nature of God in Christ.

The Transfiguration of Christ certainly teaches us that God is in Christ: it describes the incident where Jesus goes up a mountain with Peter, James and John and He is transfigured before them – His appearance changes and He becomes radiant with glory, before God's voice from heaven declares that Jesus is "my Son, whom I love". This dramatic account underlines the fact that Jesus, the carpenter's son, is much more than just a good teacher or a self-sacrificial leader, He is God himself revealed in the flesh.

As the increasing commercialisation of our celebration of the incarnation at Christmas, and the crucifixion and resurrection at Easter, dulls our awareness of the impact of 'God come down' to save us in these seasons, perhaps we need to use days like that celebrated on August 6th to remind us of the true glory, power and significance of Christ to each and every one of us.

In Christ, Phil

It's strange how £20 feels like a lot when giving to God—but so little when shopping.

ALPHA SERIES
COMING 2027

Following on from the success of this year's Alpha Course, we are running another six-week course in January 2027, starting on Thursday 7 January.

Now is the time to start praying specific prayers for those people you think would benefit from attending an Alpha course. Invitations will be available at the end of the year, but most important are your prayers from now until January.

It's strange how reading one Bible chapter feels difficult but finishing a novel feels easy

BAPTISM BY FULL IMMERSION

It was back in 2023 that I asked about an Alpha Course and was told that neither St. Andrew's nor All Saints' were planning a course at that time. I made enquiries and found that Christchurch Baptist Church were holding a course that spring. Gill and I attended and found it very rewarding. Following the course I began to think about my Christian life and through reading the Gospels and other books in the New Testament I noticed that to complete my acceptance of Jesus as my Saviour I needed to be Baptised – to me by “full immersion”.

It took me until early spring this year to speak with various people from the Parish about this form of Baptism. In May 2026, I approached the Minister of the Christchurch Baptist Church (the new Beacon Church having just been completed) and it was agreed that I could be Baptised there. On June 28th 2026, I gave my testimony and was Baptised by full immersion.

The service was streamed (recorded) and my testimony and Baptism can be viewed on YouTube via the following link...

Open the Book at Tiptoe School

Another school year has come to an end, and we acted out our last Open the Book for the year. We have been going into Tiptoe school for nearly 12 years now and it has been a privilege and a pleasure. Long may it continue!!

(If anyone reading this thinks they might be interested in joining us, do contact me - we would love to hear from you!)

After the last story, we gave out Bibles to all the 22 leavers, and wished them an enjoyable time in their new schools. Thank you to everyone who contributed towards the cost of them.

Janice Benson

3,000+ churches are involved in Open the Book, reaching over 2,000 schools with more than 90 dramatized stories.

Open
the Book

Alex, a psychology student, came to faith partly because of Open the Book. She says ...

'I watched Open the Book throughout my Junior School years—they were the best assemblies.'

'The concluding prayer at Open the Book assemblies taught me a structure of how to pray. This later took away any hesitancy around prayer as I had experienced praying before.'

'I love that Open the Book normalises faith and the Bible for these kids. Saying 'Amen' together lets them start 'doing faith' for themselves.'

Year 6 Leavers

On Monday, we said farewell to our Year 6 children, as we held their special Leavers' Service to parents at All Saints Church.

This year saw the team share some of their highlights, how they've changed over the years and their ambitions for the future. It was a truly moving service with both laughter and tears (happy tears, of course!).

Thank you for being a truly amazing cohort, Year 6 - we wish you all the best for the future. Shine brightly!

Following the Year 6 Leavers Service, we made our way to the vicarage for our annual 'Vicarage Picnic'.

We want to say a sincere thank you to our church community for the wonderful gift of Bibles for each Year 6 child. These are funded through donations from the church community and are such a treasured gift. Each child received their Bible, located our very special Bible verses and was then treated to a complete and utter surprise in the form of ice-creams!

Thank you to our amazing church community.

It's strange how easily we trust what the world says yet question what God says

'That they may have life; life in all its fullness' John 10:10

It's strange how quickly we share gossip but hesitate to share God's word

Mercy Ships have been transforming healthcare in Madagascar for 30 years. MAF has partnered with the charity since 2014, enabling the most isolated patients across the country to have access to free life-changing surgery.

During their 2026 service, the charity expects to carry out more than 1,400 surgeries and over 1,400 dental procedures, but they wouldn't be able to treat such vast numbers of people if it wasn't for MAF.

Twins in need of orthopaedic surgery

On 20 May 2026, twins Juvaniot and Juvanot, who were born with bow legs, were amongst the patients to benefit from MAF's amazing partnership with Mercy Ships.

The twins are from Antaravato, a remote village in northern Madagascar. Instead of travelling one week by car on pothole-ridden dirt tracks, or one day by boat on choppy seas, MAF was able to fly the family from the northern town of Maroantsetra to Toamasina in just one hour!

Orthopaedic surgery on the boys' legs will prevent chronic pain, joint damage, long-term mobility issues, and a lifetime of discrimination. Zara, their mother, is relieved that the life-changing surgery is happening:

'There is no doctor who can do this surgery for my children in Maroantsetra. Without this opportunity, I do not know how they could receive treatment. I want them to grow up well and be able to play and live like other children.'

Juvaniot's and Juvanot's operations aboard the Africa Mercy were a success, and they are finally both on the road to recovery.

From an article by MAF's Antsatiana Gino Randrianasolo

MAF verse for August:

Ask the Lord to bless your plans, and you will be successful in carrying them out. Proverbs 16: 3

Anandaban Hospital in Nepal

'In Nepal, life with leprosy is tough. Poverty, disability and rejection are constant struggles.

But the doors of Abandan Hospital are always open. A caring, dedicated team stand ready to bring God's healing and hope to those who need it most. The compassion of those who donate to the Leprosy Mission has sustained Abandan through every challenge.

Mahima is the Head Nurse. She is determined to give leprosy patients in Abandan the compassionate care they deserve. She dresses ulcers caused by the disease to aid healing. She helps patients rebuild their strength after reconstructive surgery.

- £20 provides an ulcer care kit to dress wounds caused by leprosy
- £60 helps fund physiotherapy so leprosy patients can regain their strength and independence
- £125 provides life saving reconstructive surgery to restore mobility to hands and feet disabled by the disease

Thank you for joining Mahima in showing the love of Jesus. Thank you for being a blessing for each and every patient at Abandan.'

Mission Links

All Saints and St. Andrew's have mission links with four societies - Bible Society, MAF, Tearfund and Leprosy Mission. We support them through specific Sundays designated to the Societies, by information in LINK and by financial giving. But what we can all do is PRAY.

More than 1,900 cases, 700 deaths, 213 recoveries

‘As healthcare workers, we urgently need more equipment.’

‘If we had enough supplies, we would not be so afraid.’

Sister Henriette, Nurse-in-Charge of an antenatal health centre in the DRC, which has received support from Tearfund, explains some of the challenges in working to protect the community from Ebola:

What makes our work difficult is that, up to now, many people still do not really believe in this disease. However, as they hear reports from different places, they are beginning to understand.

But we don’t have enough personal protective equipment. We lack protective materials and preventive supplies, including handwashing facilities and hygiene materials.

We have put in place basic preventive measures. We have placed water points in front of each service area, and we provide soap for handwashing at all times.

Tearfund supports us with chlorine, disinfectants and liquid soap. However, some essential supplies are still lacking. For example, when caring for patients, we should be using gloves. But we still don’t have enough gloves, which would help prevent transmission.

A snapshot of the work in which Tearfund is currently engaged!

THOUGHTS FROM MY GARDEN

Sadly my friendly young robin became part of the food chain. I found a pile of feathers in the garden and no robin. A week or so later, another one appeared with red feathers just coming on his breast, and also a younger one. There is still an adult robin about who does chase the younger ones. He is probably the parent but they take no notice! The youngest one was sitting on the hose pipe as I watered last night.

Two of my daughters took me to Blashford Lakes near Ringwood to explore. These lakes were formed after WW2 when the airfield was taken up and the gravel extracted from under the runways. This left big holes, which filled with water and were taken over by nature. Now it is a nature reserve run by Hampshire & Isle of Wight Wildlife Trust. There are kingfishers and otters and, during the winter, it becomes home to up to 5,000 wildfowl who overwinter there. Also a starling murmuration can be seen. I can see we shall be frequent visitors during the winter months. If you Google RAF Ibsley, you will find a lot of information about this active wartime airfield.

We then had a very good lunch at the Alice Lisle pub which is nearby. Alice Lisle is another history lesson. She lived at Moyles Court, which until recently was a school. She was beheaded in 1685 by order of Judge Jefferies because she harboured two fugitives fleeing from the Battle of Sedgemoor. Alice thought she was helping people in need, and died with her Christian faith intact. Another one to Google!

'Beauty helps us lift our gaze toward heaven'

'We live in a world where beauty is lacking. There are so many problems - wars, conflicts, hatreds ... having the opportunity to appreciate beauty helps us to see and to lift our gaze toward heaven.'

Pope Leo XIV at Castle Gandolfo in July

Begun

At 10 I wasn't old enough
At 15 immature
At 20 rather busy, selfish and cocksure
At 30 I'd a family
At 40 my career
At 50 I grew anxious
With retirement getting near
At 60 feeling older
At 70 almost done
*The things I always meant to do
Were scarcely yet begun.
The things I'd always hoped to do
Were scarcely yet begun.*

O Lord, if I could start again
My life would not be lived in vain!

At 10 I'd do a little
At 15 somewhat more
At 20 I'd give time to help the hungry and the poor
At 30, with my children, I'd try to give a lead
At helping in the wider world where there is special need
At 40 I'd revise my style and give much more away
At 50, I'd look up to God and find more time to pray
At 60, with retirement, I'd make a special plan
To use my time to serve the Lord in every way one can
And when I came to 70 and still not really done ...
*I'd know the things I meant to do
At least had been begun.
I'd know the things I hoped to do
At least had been begun.*

The BIG BUTTERFLY COUNT

2026 Ends 9th August

1. Pick up a butterfly identification sheet at church, or download (Search for butterfly-id-sheet-england.pdf)
2. Spend 15 minutes in a sunny spot in your garden, a public open space or out on a walk
3. Count the butterflies and moths you see
4. Submit your results using the iRecord Butterflies App or leave your sheet in the office with Peter Reece for attention of “Eco Church”. Include the date and location/postcode so that this is correctly recorded.

You may submit more than one set of results.

N.B. If you are watching butterflies on a bush, only record the highest number you see at one time, to avoid counting the same butterfly over and over again!

Why take part?

It's a FUN, FREE, FAMILY ACTIVITY. It also helps scientists to gauge the health of the Natural World. If butterflies are in decline, it's a clear sign that Nature is in trouble!

Citizen science results directly influence the advice given to government regarding policy and law affecting how the environment is cared for, also local policy on grass cutting and funding for farmers. Not all the butterflies you may see appear on the identification sheet! However, if you recognise other moths and butterflies, include them in your results and they will be counted.

If you are passionate about Nature, you might like to join a charity that supports wildlife conservation. There are plenty to choose from, all campaigning hard for Nature, the Environment, for clean air and quality of life for all of God's Creation.

PROVISIONAL DATES FOR THE BIG STRIM & RAKE

Please put these dates in your calendar and, weather permitting, join us with tools and suitable footwear from 9.30 am. Refreshments will be provided

St Andrew's:	Big Strim: Thursday 3rd September
	Big Rake: Thursday 10th September
All Saints':	Big Strim: Thursday 17th September
	Big Rake: Thursday 24th September

None of the work happened to schedule last year! But the meadows were eventually cut and raked.

The primroses, violets, ox-eye daisies, and four green winged orchids at Tiptoe have bloomed gloriously. On a warm, still afternoon look out for butterflies: Marbled White and Meadow Browns are already thriving amongst the long grasses.

Grateful thanks to all our volunteers

Help hospice care live on

Could you pledge a gift in your will to ensure Oakhaven Hospice is here to care for and support local families in the future?

Oakhaven is at the heart of our community, each year providing compassionate care for thousands of patients and specialist support for their loved ones. Oakhaven is here for everyone in the New Forest, Totton and Waterside, from the diagnosis of a life-limiting condition to being there for loved ones in bereavement.

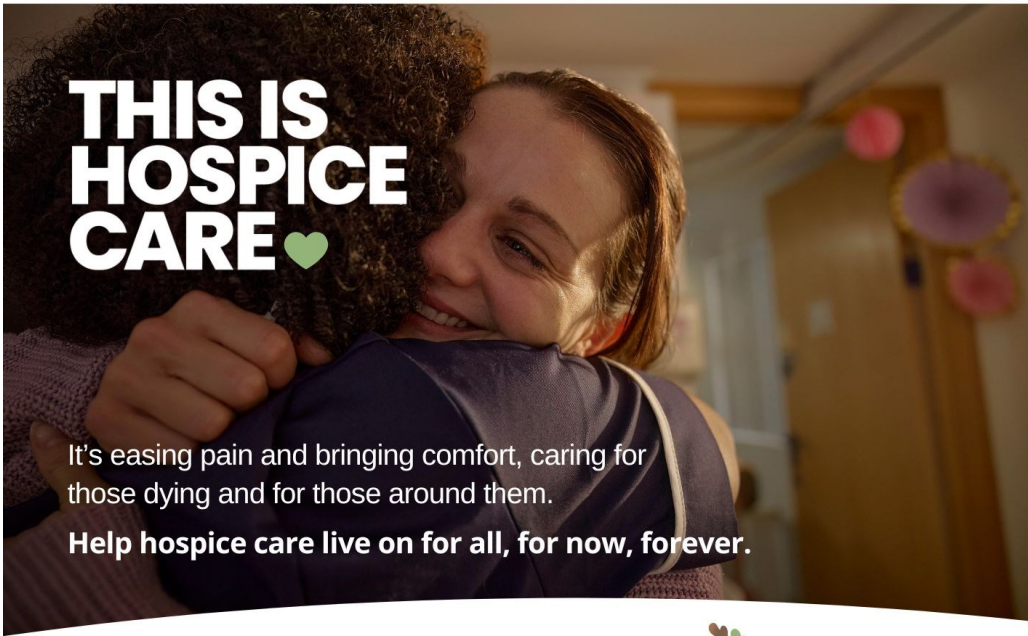

For many of us, a hospice will touch our lives, whether for ourselves, a loved one, or a friend, providing comfort, dignity, and expert care through life's most challenging times. But this support wouldn't exist without you. Oakhaven relies heavily on charitable donations to keep its doors open.

A gift of any size will help to ensure Oakhaven is here to help people you love receive end-of-life care.

Hospice care is free at the point of use. But, unlike the NHS, it is not fully state-funded. Currently, just 11% of Oakhaven's annual running costs are covered by the government. With rising costs and growing demand for hospice services, these gifts are more important to us than ever.

A gift in your will can help make sure Oakhaven will be here to offer compassionate, free care to thousands of people each year, now and in the future.

To find out more about leaving Oakhaven a gift in your will, visit oakhavenhospice.co.uk/legacy, or call 01590 677773.
