Welcome to the March edition of LINK

Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he called out, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" (Jonah 3:4)

Of all the seasons in the Christian calendar to have had its theological significance stripped away by secularism, it may be surprising that Lent was among the first. We still expect to see wise men and stables appear on greetings cards at Christmas, and we know it is rare to see many empty tombs or crosses popping up outside churches at Easter. But even in my childhood the meaning of Lent was nothing more than giving up chocolate with a vague sense that this was to instill some moral fibre.

Yet the 40 days from Ash Wednesday through to Palm Sunday at the start of April were fixed in place by the ancient church for a specific reason. Numbers matter in the Bible, and the 40 days of Lent match the 40 days or years that God sometimes gave people to repent of their waywardness and turn back to Him. Much more than our New Year's resolutions, Lent is a time for Christians to look back and reflect whether our lives have been characterized by faithful obedience to God's word in recent months and, inevitably, to recognize once again that we stand confident in God's presence only because of Christ's atoning work on the cross which we are preparing to celebrate at Easter.

The thought that God would require us to consider our failures is counter cultural in a society that tells us to love ourselves and build our self worth. But at no point in the Bible does God test people or call them to account, except to help them out of a direction that will lead to disaster. Indeed the scandal of these accounts is that as soon as anyone believed God's warnings, he rescued them and forgave them, no matter how far they had got things wrong.

As we face some serious times of testing in our wider world right now, perhaps this Lent is an apt time for us all to reflect seriously whether we can recognize our need for the kind of divine help and salvation that only the Good Friday Cross provides, but which is available to anyone ready to receive it.

God bless, Phil

Meat-free Fridays?

In February 2020, General Synod voted for a target to achieve zero carbon by 2030. However, recognising that it may take longer than the current time frame to achieve this, bishops have suggested "Having a meat-free Friday during Lent". The Bishop of Norwich says "It is, after all, entirely in line with the long-established Christian practice in many churches of avoiding meat on Fridays, and not only during Lent."

Thank you!

This enthusiastic group of volunteers not only deserved their well-earned coffee break, but also our grateful thanks for all their hard work in tidying up the All Saints' Churchyard on Saturday 21st January. Well done all!

This group of children from Hordle All Saints and Tiptoe St. Andrew's raised £330.62 at their cake sale in church for The Lymington basics food bank. Recently they went down to meet Oli and the team to hand over the cheque.

The children from Year 2 and Year 3 from Hordle Primary school were inspired to raise money for the food bank after talking at school about helping others.

The children did such an amazing job. We are so proud of them.

Home Groups

Most Churches around the country run Home Groups, where church family members gather to study the Bible.

For our Church, Home Groups meet together midweek in someone's home to study the Bible, pray and share fellowship. Meetings usually take place fortnightly. Some groups have a meal beforehand.

Most groups follow a range of study methods – either a published course of Bible studies, reading and discussing a Christian book, exploring themes from the Sunday sermon or independently studying a book of the Bible.

During the Lent period, Phil, our Vicar, suggested that all the groups follow the same course, called Discipleship Explored. Phil is also running the course on Monday mornings from 11.00 - 12.00 for those members of the congregation who do not attend a Home Group, and for those Home Groups who wish to study with a larger group of people. I hope you have been taking part in these studies.

It would be lovely to have more groups. If you have led a group before and would like to start a new group, or are currently an existing member and would like to 'breakaway' and start a new group, I would love to hear from you. I know there are people looking to join groups. We just need the leaders.

One group does meet via Zoom, so there would be the opportunity to join them, until a new group is established.

However we meet, the aim is the same – to deepen our relationship with God and each other, to grow in love and knowledge of God and to learn how best to support one another in the Church.

Men's Breakfast 11th February

The Reverend Cliff McClelland, chaplain at Winchester prison, spoke to us about his work with Winchester staff and inmates. Cliff spoke of the ripple effect of anger, remorse and regret that affects many prisoners. Sadly over 50% of offenders have a parent who have been in prison, which makes it difficult to break the tradition. Many prisoners suffer from PTSD.

Cliff drew our attention to our own sinfulness and how we fall short of God's purpose. He reminded us of the passage in Exodus 20:13 – 'Thou shalt not murder' - reminding us that by turning our backs on sin we turn towards God through Christ our Saviour. We were reminded of how Moses, David and Paul had all been guilty of murder, but were used powerfully by God. Cliff also drew our attention to the message of restoration that we find in Matthew 5.

The prison chaplaincy team seek to encourage restorative justice, where both offender and victim are encouraged to communicate with each other. He spoke about the example of 'A', who was raised a Buddhist, attended a Christian School, and later, as an adult, committed a serious crime as a result of an alcohol problem. He was supported by the chaplaincy team, giving his life to Jesus and finding peace. He spoke of finding 'D', a broken man at the foot of the chapel cross one day, convicted of his brokenness before Jesus, again able to find the love and acceptance of Jesus.

Cliff went on to encourage churches to consider joining the crucial Welcome Directory, helping Faith Communities welcome people leaving prison.

When God created Mothers

When the Lord was creating mothers, an angel asked: "Why are you spending so much time on this one."

God said, "Have you read the specs for her? She has to be completely washable, but not plastic, have 200 moveable parts, run on black coffee and leftovers, have a lap that can hold three children at a time but that disappears when she stands up, a kiss that can cure anything from a broken leg to a disappointed love affair ... and six pairs of hands."

The angel slowly said, "Six pairs of hands ... no way."

"It's not the hands that are causing me problems," God remarked, "it's the three pairs of eyes that mothers have to have."

"That's on the standard model?" asked the angel. God nodded.

"One pair that sees through closed doors when she asks, 'What are you kids doing in there?' even though she already knows, another in the back of her head that sees what she shouldn't but what she has to know, and of course the ones in front that can look at a child with love when he goofs up and say. 'I understand and I love you' without so much as uttering a word."

"God," said the angel gently, "Get some rest ... this is too much for one day."

"I can't," said God, "I'm so close to creating something so close to my heart. I have one who heals herself when she is sick, can feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger and can get a nine year old to stand under a shower."

The angel touched the mother slowly and said, "It's so soft." "But tough!" said God excitedly. "Imagine what this mother can endure or accomplish!"

"Will she be able to think?" "Not only will she be able to think, but she can reason and compromise," said the Creator.

Finally, the angel bent over and ran a finger across the cheek.

"There's a leak!" she pronounced. "I told You that You were trying to put too much into this model." "It's not a leak," said the Lord, "It's a tear."

"What's the tear for?" "The tear is her expression of joy, sadness, disappointment, pain, loneliness, and pride."

The angel was impressed. "You are a genius," said the angel.

Sombrely, God said, "No. I created the woman but she created the tear."

towards completion of the church at Gisanze, which has a growing congregation of extremely poor families, widows, and orphans some with HIV, who originally worshipped in a very small chapel building because financially they were not able to build a new one. Finance is still the problem.

The Government closed all churches which did not fit with the demands of new legalisation including Gisanze. Their requirements are cleanliness, with good and big glazed metal windows and doors, hand washing facilities and a minimum of 4 toilets. In order to meet present and future needs, the parish set about building a new church, both for worship and other church /community activities such as a nursery school and skill teaching.

This traditional building material of clay bricks in sub-Saharan Africa is used because it is cooler, cheaper, and requires less energy to make.

Pastor Vincent Habimana sent an estimate of “costings” to complete the build to meet the Government standards. The total amounts came to about £4000, and last Lent we were able to send to the diocese for Gisanze £1223 for which they expressed grateful thanks and praise, and this Lent, the objective is to continue to fund further progress, and so aid the congregation in Gisanze to forward the work of caring and proclaiming the Kingdom of our Saviour.

‘We are asking if the people of your Church could, during Lent, support the work of Minstead Trust’s newest social business - The Real Jam and Chutney Company - at Minstead Lodge.

As you reflect and prepare to celebrate Easter, please would you consider helping to fund essential changes in running our walled vegetable garden, so that people will be able to sow, tend, grow and harvest the produce that will be the fresh ingredients for the Jams and Chutneys that are made at Minstead Lodge.

The people who tend to the gardens have learning disabilities and they will have the opportunity of being actively involved in the business, contributing to the success of the Real Jam and Chutney Company. Freshly grown produce from the gardens at Minstead Lodge will be a vital part of the success of our new business.

We took on this exciting company at the end of 2022. A going concern, with an existing book of loyal retailers in the New Forest, The Real Jam and Chutney Company is our new work integration social business that involves people with learning disabilities in all aspects of the company: growing and preparing the fruit and vegetables, cooking, canning and labelling, as well as deliveries. We have an apprentice in post, and also offer volunteering, training, and work experience opportunities on our Step up for Work programme.

Please help us to get our initial production up to speed. We need items such as a new mower and tools, along with seeds, compost and also funds for maintenance of the machinery and equipment. In all, we are looking to raise £2,000. We would be most grateful if your Church could help us reach this target. Your generosity would be helping people like Emily, who told me “I enjoy growing vegetables and also flowers, I like to see the butterflies and bees on the flowers”

Josh, Production Chef Apprentice, makes the jams and chutneys. He told me “I am really happy to be working in the Kitchens at Minstead Lodge; I have always wanted to be a chef and now I am learning how to do that. I like everything about making the jams and chutneys, except I am not that keen on the smell of the vinegar!”

If members of the congregations wish to make a donation they can do so here <https://www.minsteadtrust.org.uk/charity/appeals/garden-appeal>

We value your Church’s ongoing support and we thank you for considering our work during Lent. To find out more, do come and visit us at Minstead Lodge.’

Dear God ...

You were telling me about Jesus, about your creation and how it went wrong.

Dear Carolyn,

Yes, I made the world because I am loving, good and creative. I only know good things, so there was no way I could anticipate evil or pain and the world was made without protection against those things. My creation became flawed, and humans experienced hardship and pain. Though angry, I didn't withdraw from what I had made, but was active in the world, especially in the lives of the Israelites who knew me. But I couldn't be part of the world, and be united with my people because of their sin, and they were unable to free themselves from it. Sin was a barrier between them and me. Only Jesus could remove that. He was God and man, the point of meeting where I became one with my Creation. He died at the hands of men to unite people to me for ever.

Dear God,

But we are still not immune from bad things, things which happen to us and things we do, are we?

Dear Carolyn,

No; though there is nothing more Jesus has to do, there is an opportunity for you to respond to his gift of himself.

Thoughts from my garden ...

I am enjoying this sunny weather mid February working in the garden. I have been just tidying up, with Robin for company. All he wants is a worm, which he usually finds. The shallots and broad beans are planted in pots in the greenhouse and the potatoes are chitting in the spare bedroom.

I have spent quite a lot of time sorting photographs, throwing out a lot and the rest will go into albums, making sure they are marked. Then the bookcase had to be turned out to make room for the albums, which means there are piles of books looking for a new home! I have not changed houses since early 1970's so it is about time I did some sorting!

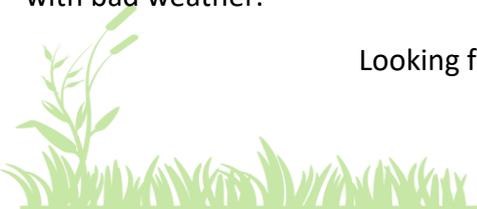

A weather presenter mentioned that there have not been any named storms this year yet - and I hope it stays that way! This set me thinking. Do you remember the big storm which hit Milford-on-Sea on Valentines Day 2014?

We went to the sea front the following weekend, together with half the local population. We must have put the car in the car park in Milford and walked to the front. The beach huts had been completely demolished - they were not made of wood, and the debris was everywhere. I think the carpark must have been closed. The people celebrating Valentines Day at the restaurant on the front were rescued by the Army because of the flooding. Since then, the huts have been rebuilt and some alterations made to cope with bad weather.

Looking forward to the warmer weather!

PCC Jottings from the last 9 months

PCC training took place at the May meeting, especially for new members but a timely reminder for us all about our responsibilities as Trustees and how we should conduct ourselves.

The PCC met for a Vision Day in June to discuss whether the Vision statement in the Parish Profile made for Phil's appointment was still appropriate and how we move forward. The PCC are aware there is much to be done to fulfil this vision.

Finance- the Common Mission fund payment (that pays Phil's salary) has been decreased and we have been managing to pay our full share for the first time for many years. The finance committee has recommended moving some of our necessary reserves into an investment account to earn higher interest.

Fabric – both churches and halls have had a quinquennial inspection. There are jobs to be done but nothing too major. The tornado that hit St. Andrew's area caused damage to several trees and a few roof tiles.

The Eco church team have continued to encourage us to set an example in sustainable living. A 'warm space' has been set up in Hordle pavilion on Mondays which the church is supporting with personnel.

Liz Wyatt has taken over from Gill Morris as Parish Safeguarding Officer. New safeguarding policy for social media personnel has been approved.

The health and safety policy has been reviewed, updated and accepted.

We also receive reports from the subcommittees: mission, hall management, eco church and finance.

The position for a children's and youth worker was advertised. This produced enquiries but no suitable applications so the position has been readvertised.

The Parish profile has been updated and the role description is in process for an Associate Minister to assist Phil across the parish.

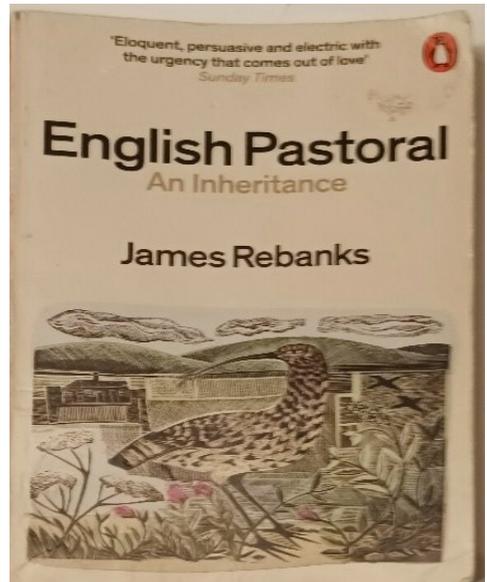

Service times at All Saints have been adjusted to 9am and 10.30am to assist set up for the later service.

A STORY OF HOPE AND REGENERATION

ENGLISH PASTORAL

By JAMES REBANKS

A touching autobiography of family life, hard work and passion for the natural world from a Lakeland farmer. He agonises over the pressure to produce cheap food and his shock to realise that soil is damaged by over dependence on chemical fertilisers.

There is challenge: “we should farm as if we are going to live for a thousand years. The idea is that we might protect our natural resources better if we had to face the long-term consequences for our actions instead of passing on a mess for someone else to sort out ... Are we big enough, brave enough, or wise enough to do anything so grand and idealistic as stop the damage we are doing?”

There is hope, poetry and beauty. James is raising his family surrounded by streams re-engineered to meander through restored wetlands, grazed by traditional cattle that tread more lightly on sensitive pasture, wildflower meadows, crop rotation and habitats that invite curlews and lapwings to return to breed.

I loved it.

Our Mission Partners

MAF Dave and Becky Waterman

Dave and Becky's most recent newsletter is available at both churches.

In it they are celebrating the year since they began work in Liberia, the work Dave has been doing to change MAF Liberia on to the American system, for which he has recently gained his FAA licence, the joys of compound life in such a beautiful place, and for Becky the benefits of retreats and the time to write.

They are encouraged by good progress on the house that will become their home, hopefully before April, and they anticipate their next visit to the UK in April and May.

The logo for Tearfund consists of the word 'tearfund' in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font, set against a dark teal rectangular background. This background is placed on a larger yellow rectangular field.

Tearfund are encouraging us to 'give and pray as a church and help show the love of Christ to people in desperate need.'

'People were already extremely vulnerable, so this earthquake is a crisis on top of a crisis. It is yet another layer of devastation that adds to the poverty and vulnerability experienced by ordinary Syrians.'

'Tearfund does not work in Turkey, but we are committed in prayer to everyone affected by the earthquake.'

Our Wonderful Grandhordles

Here at Hordle Primary School we have so much admiration for our lovely volunteers we call our Grandhordles!

They give up and devote their time during the week to read and help the children with their schoolwork. Not only do we value their generosity but we also know how much the children love spending time with them all.

It is so brilliant to see the children connect with them and the respect shown is just amazing.

“I love the Grandhordles! They are really nice and friendly and they like it when I read them stories.”

“The Grandhordles are really kind and lovely and if I get stuck on a word they always help me to work it out.”

The Grandhordles Team is coordinated by our fabulous Mrs Ursell who has a wonderful rapport with all generations and really has done a great job keeping this tradition alive.

If you would be interested in joining our Grandhordle Team please come to the School office and collect a volunteer pack.

We hope to see you soon!

A gift from Glyn

After losing his wife nine years ago, local man Glyn left a gift in his Will to Oakhaven Hospice after experiencing first-hand how the hospice can help those who need care and support.

He became part of the Widowed Friendship Club, which is a self-help group of widows and widowers, and was also looked after by Oakhaven Care in the final stages of his own life. He was so thankful and appreciative of this support that he decided to leave a gift to the hospice so that others in the community who may find themselves in a similar position could benefit from Oakhaven and all that it has to offer.

We are able to care for one in four people thanks to people like Glyn leaving a gift in their Will.

Leaving a lasting legacy to Oakhaven in this way ensures we will be able to continue caring for those in our community when they need us most, helping us to make every moment matter.

Could you help us with a gift in your Will?

A pledge of any size really will make a difference to our future.

Visit oakhavenhospice.co.uk/legacy for more information.

We also offer a free and confidential online Will writing service in partnership with Guardian Angel.

The legacy of Glyn lives on through his gift to Oakhaven Hospice
